Target Speakers

We are looking for industry experts with experience in the federal real property fields/topics listed above to share specific content that Conference attendees will be able take to away to apply in their organizations.

Conference Content

As part of its on-going mission, the FRPA supports and promotes professionalism among real property executives, managers and vendors in the public and private sectors.

The FRPA is focused on continually educating its membership and industry professionals about current topics and areas of interest within the Federal real property arena. Topic categories will include detailed real world business strategy, technology and community and customer service discussions.

All speakers should be willing to speak for at least 20 minutes with a Q&A session to follow the presentation (a total of 30 minutes). We are also looking for speakers willing to engage in panel presentations or round table discussion on topics listed above.

Submission Process

To be considered as a speaker, please complete and submit the speaker submission information listed below. Because speakers are confirmed on a rolling basis, we encourage prospective speakers to submit their proposals as soon as possible.

* Submission for a speaking position does not guarantee a spot. Slots are chosen by the conference committee. You will be notified if/when you are selected.

 Each speaking slot should include a government speaker. If a private organization submits a topic/speaker, they should have a government client or thought leader speak with them on the topic.
